

Dear Parents/Guardians,

13th September, 2021

Arrangements for “Drama Creation in Practice Project”

This year the school successfully invited the Chung-Ying Theater Company to the school to finish the Creative Fairy Tale -"Tarzan in the City" drama creation in practice project. The project will mainly focus on guiding students to understand the characteristics, habits, and values of Tarzan from the movie and original novel through process drama. Students can also experience the fun of theatre while creating a script collectively together for an in-school performance of about 20 minutes. Your child has been selected and has the opportunity to participate in the above project. Details of the training in the first semester are listed below:

	"Tarzan in the City"-- Creative Fairy Tales Drama Creation in Practice Project

Remarks	The project will be carried out throughout the year, with 8 sessions in the first semester and 7 sessions in the second semester, for a total of 30 hours (including on-campus performances). The project will be held as usual under Amber Rainstorm Warning Signal and Strong Wind Signal No. 3. If classes are cancelled due to severe weather such as Red and Black rain, Gale or Storm No. 8 Warning Signals, replacement classes will be arranged later. In addition, the school will review the Education Bureau's guidelines or changes in the pandemic, or adjust the length or mode of classes (such as changing some classes to online), and there will be no refunds for the payments.

If you would like your children to participate in the above training, please sign the reply slip and return it to Mr. Chung Sai Kit.

Yours faithfully,
Mr. Chan Chun Wah
Principal
