

Dear Parents/Guardians,

7th October, 2021

Arrangements for the “Story Wonders 2021/22” Online Course

The story creation and speech training program sponsored by the Changing Young Lives Foundation-"Story Wonderland 2021/22". The project aims to inspire children to think and establish correct values through story reading, creation and speech. The theme of this year is "Social Inclusion", which allows students to learn the spirit of caring and inclusiveness.

The project is divided into two parts: "Story Creation/Speech Training Workshop" and "Story Speech Competition". The "Story Creation/Speech Training Workshop", instructed by professional story/drama instructors, teaches students the skills of story creation and stage presentation, as well as enhancing children's reading motivation and speaking skills, as well as establishing correct values. Students who have completed the workshop will participate in the school's selection, and successfully selected students will represent the school to participate in the Hong Kong "Storytelling Competition" in May next year. In view of the pandemic, the training will be conducted through the Microsoft Teams platform. The details are listed below:
