

Dear Parents/Guardians,

7th September, 2023

Regarding the “Participation in the Hong Kong Speech Festival Competition”

The 75th Hong Kong Speech Festival Competition will soon begin, and your child has been recommended by teachers to participate in the competition to unleash their creativity and potential. The school will soon register students for relevant competitions. Below are the details of the event:

Competition Dates	20 th November, 2023 to 20 th December, 2023 (Please note that the exact competition times and locations will be provided by the organizers after 1 st November, 2023)
Fee	The registration fee will be subsidized by the Life-wide Learning Grant, so students do not need to pay any fees.
Event Content	Teachers will choose appropriate passages based on the students' grade and language proficiency. Subsequently, teachers will provide individual guidance to students on their recitation skills during their free time and after-school hours.
Competition Methods	Only solo verse speaking for lower grades will continue in a video recording format, most competitions will take place on site.
Competition Arrangements:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. For competitions conducted in video recording format, the school will record the students' performances and upload the videos to the organizers' online platform. For on-site competitions, parents are required to accompany their children to the designated venue at the specified competition times. Students should wear school uniforms on the competition day.2. If parents are unable to accompany their children to the competition venue due to important matters, please submit a written request to the school in advance. The school will arrange staff members to accompany the students to the competition venue.

We believe that through training and participation in this competition, students will be able to enhance their expressiveness and confidence. We hope that parents will support their children's participation in this event. If you have any inquiries, please contact Mr. Lau Yin San.

Yours faithfully,
Mr. Chan Chun Wah
Principal
