

Dear Parents/Guardians,

25th April, 2024

“Jockey Club "Diversity at Schools" Project Parent Education Seminar”

The Jockey Club "Diversity at Schools" Project is funded by the Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust and brings together different educational professionals to develop and establish a school-based diversity management model. This assists schools in enhancing their capability to care for student learning diversity and to nurture diverse talents, supporting students in meaningful learning. Entering the third academic year of the program, to deepen parents' understanding of how to care for their children's learning diversity, the program shares how to support children with learning difficulties and behavioral issues, as well as to promote parent-school cooperation across Hong Kong schools. A special parent education seminar has now set up to support students in meaningful learning and growth. For this seminar, Ms. Char Sze On has been invited to educate parents, an opportunity not to be missed. Please participate enthusiastically. Details are as follows:
