Part B: Paragraph (40%@3%)

Last year, our city had an earthquake, a flood, and a typhoon. Many roads were blocked and windows were broken. To help others, my school asked us to do voluntary work and buy flags to raise hope. We gave away old books to children who lost theirs. I also took part in a fund-raising fair to collect money for families in need. Later, we visited an elderly home to cheer up the old people. It was a special experience.

Part B: Paragraph (40%@3%)

We can help protect animals and the Earth by making smart choices.

We should recycle plastic bottles, reuse paper and envelopes, and turn the lights off when not needed. Instead of throwing away cans, we can reuse or recycle them. Sadly, some people destroy forests, hunt for ivory tusks, and wear fur coats, which harms animals like the Asian elephant and the polar bear. We can also use up leftovers to reduce waste. Let's all do our part to keep nature safe and animals happy!

Part B: Paragraph (40%@3%)

Last weekend, we went on a school camp and had so much fun! First, we went orienteering in the forest - it was tricky, but exciting. Then we played tug of war, and my team won! At night, we sang around the campfire and gazed at the stars. I felt so relaxed and glad to be with my friends. The next day, I tried wall climbing for the first time. I was nervous at first, then a bit frustrated when I slipped, but I didn't give up. I was so thankful for the experience. It was the best camp ever!
